

Broker Prelicense

A candidate for a broker's real estate license in Georgia must:

- Be at least 21 years of age.
- Be a high school graduate or the holder of a certificate of equivalency.
- Successfully complete a Commission-approved Broker Prelicense Course of at least 60 hours, including a proctored exam, at an approved school such as Georgia MLS Training Institute.
- Pass a state examination approved by the Commission.
- Have maintained a salesperson's license in active status for at least three of the five years immediately preceding the filing of an application to become a broker (effective 07/01/07).

A broker's license is the most distinguished designation in the real estate profession. Elevate your license status AND satisfy the 24-hour continuing education requirement by reviewing current brokerage management, office operations, broker responsibilities, financial management and government regulations.

COMPUTER-BASED COURSE Georgia MLS Training Institute offers the 60-hour Broker Prelicense Course in a comprehensive online program. If you have access to the Internet on an IBM compatible computer, then distance learning may be right for you! Our course is approved by the Georgia Real Estate Commission and allows you to learn at your own pace from the comfort of your computer. Tuition is only $275 and includes admission into our highly regarded Cram Course, as well as a free reference book, The Language of Real Estate. That's a $75 value!

The Cram Course is a two-day, intensive review that is highly recommended before sitting for the examination. The program format breaks down the prelicense material into major topic areas. Each topic area is thoroughly covered by a lecture review and concludes with a comprehensive testing and evaluation section. This extremely valuable course is offered throughout the year at the Corporate office in Tucker ($50 value).

The Language of Real Estate is a totally functional real estate reference book that provides an answer to most every real estate question. This thorough and accurate reference guide defines abandonment to zoning and over 2,800 terms in between! The Language of Real Estate is the most comprehensive real estate book in the marketplace and often referred to as the "bible" of real estate ($25 value).

Completion of the 60-hour Broker Prelicense program, including the proctored final examination, also satisfies the 24-hour continuing education renewal requirement for a real estate licensee.
