

2-Day Cram Course

Georgia MLS Training Institute's weekend Cram Course is an absolute must for anyone who is preparing to take the Georgia Real Estate Salesperson or Broker Examination. This intensive review will help strengthen your content knowledge and develop solid test-taking skills regardless of where you completed your prelicense course work.

The material provided in this class includes an extensive review of the prelicense requirements covering all aspects of the course. The format breaks down the prelicense material into eight major topic areas. Each topic is thoroughly covered by a lecture review and concludes with a comprehensive test and evaluation session.

The instructor for the Cram Course is Bob Hart, a veteran educator with over 25 years of teaching prelicense real estate courses in the Atlanta area. He serves as the Director of Education for Georgia MLS Training Institute and is a co-author of Real Estate Fundamentals.

Although there is not any education credit associated with this class, it is a worthwhile investment for anyone who is preparing to take the Georgia real estate examination.

The Cram Course is offered on designated weekends at our Tucker location. The class meets from 8:45 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. The Cram Course is available at an affordable cost of $50.
